

Thames Valley Suicide Prevention and Intervention Network (SPIN) Conference

Thursday 10th September 2015 (World Suicide Prevention Day)

Indoor Bowls Centre, Stoke Mandeville Stadium, Guttman Road,
Aylesbury, Buckinghamshire HP21 9PP

PROGRAMME

09.00 – 09.45	Registration and coffee
09.45 – 10.00	Opening remarks	Dr Rob Bale, Chair
10.00 – 10.20	SPIN 2014-15 – Overview of the past 18 months	Karen Lascelles
10.20 – 11.05	State of Mind – What's Theirs?	Dr Phil Cooper, Danny Sculthorpe, and Jimmy Gittins, State of Mind Rugby
11.05 – 11.25	Coffee
11.25 – 11.45	Thames Valley CALMzone	Matt Williams
11.45 – 12.30	Early suicide alert process – The Durham experience	Catherine Richardson, Durham County Council
12.30 – 12.45	Summary of the morning	Dr Rob Bale, Chair
12.30 – 13.15	Lunch
13.15 – 13.45	Introduction to afternoon NB: If Madeleine Moon MP is not able to attend this session due to urgent parliamentary business it will be replaced by a panel discussion	Madeleine Moon MP, Chair of the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Suicide and Self-Harm
13.45 – 14.55	Afternoon workshop - Session One: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Going where we need to go: Providing a community-based postvention response to suicide contagion and the latest Public Health guidance. Man Talk: Listening to men differently. Bespoke or standardised, cascade or snowball: What is the best way to deliver suicide awareness training? Survivors of Bereavement by Suicide: Engaging and supporting those bereaved by suicide. 	(Selection of four 50 minute workshops; each delegate will have chosen two workshops to attend)
14.55 – 15.10	Tea
15.10 – 16.00	Afternoon workshop - Session Two: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Police-led supportive signposting: Review of progress and local thinking about real time suicide surveillance. Dads Matter UK: Engaging with fathers with PTSD at birth, depression and anxiety. PAPYRUS – Preventing Young Suicide: What we do and how we do it. 	(Selection of three 50 minute workshops; each delegate will have chosen two workshops to attend)
16.00 – 16.15	Closing remarks	Dr Rob Bale

For more information please contact: matt.williams@oxfordhealth.nhs.uk